

Current Position:

- 2017- Post- Doctoral Researcher in Maritime History.
IMS/FORTH, Rethymno Crete
- 2017 Adjunct Instructor in Economic and Social History
Hellenic Open University
- 2012- Adjunct Instructor in Economic History
Ionian University, Corfu-Greece

EDUCATION

2006-2011 D.Phil in Economic and Social History, University of Oxford

Title: “British Shipping and Trade in the Mediterranean in the age of war (1770-1815)”,

Supervisor: Prof. Knick Harley (St Antony’s College)

Examiners: P. K. O’ Brien (LSE) and N.A.M. Rodger (All Souls College, Oxford)

2004-2005 M.Sc in Economic and Social History, University of Oxford,
Department of Modern History

Title: “Commercial practices and culture in the Eastern Mediterranean in the 18th century”

Supervisor: Mr. R. Briggs (All Souls College, Oxford)

1999- 2003 Bachelor in History. University of Athens, Greece,
Department of History and Archaeology

ACADEMIC EMPLOYMENT

2012- Adjunct Instructor in Economic History and Maritime History,
Ionian University, Corfu

2011-2012 Economic History Society Postan Post-Doctoral Fellow, IHR London
and Junior Research Fellow, St’ Antony’s College, University of Oxford

2008 -2009 Teaching Assistant in Economic History, Pembroke College and St Hilda’s College, University of Oxford

- 2006-2008 Research Assistant; Ionian University-Greece
Archival research, oral interviews and database construction on Greek-owned shipping
- 2004-2006 Research Assistant: Collection of Manuscripts, National Library, Greece

RESEARCH PROJECTS

- 2017- 2021 Post-doctoral Researcher: Seafaring Lives in Transition. Mediterranean Maritime Labour and Shipping during Globalization, 1850's – 1920's, ERC Starting Grant, IMS/FORTH, Rethymno Crete
- 2015-2018 Main Post-Doctoral Researcher: Greek merchant and naval fleet during the Greek War of Independence, 1821-1831, Funded by Stavros Niarchos Foundation, Ionian University
- 2012-2015 Main Post-Doctoral Researcher: From Constantinople to the City of London; Greek Merchant Bankers, 1820-1880, Funded by the European Union and the Greek General Secretariat of Research and Technology, Ionian University
- 2012-2015 Researcher: The Black Sea and port-cities from the 18th to the 20th century. Development, convergence and integration into the world economy, Research Project Thalis funded by the European Union and the Greek General Secretariat of Research and Technology, Ionian University
- 2004-2006 Researcher: Greek Maritime History, 1700-1821, Research Project “Pythagoras I”, funded by the European Union and the Greek Ministry of Education, Ionian University

AWARDS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

- Frank Broeze Prize for the Outstanding Doctoral Thesis in Maritime History by the International Maritime Economic History Association, 2012

- Postan Post-doctoral Fellowship by the Economic History Society (EHS), 2011-2012
- Propondis Foundation: Scholarship towards the completion of post-graduate studies, 2009-2010
- Beit Fund: Research Grant in the field of the History of the British Empire 2009
- Greek State Scholarship Foundation (IKY) 2004-2008: Full-time scholarship for post-graduate studies

PUBLICATIONS

Books:

- British Shipping in the Mediterranean during the Napoleonic Wars: The untold Story of a successful Adaptation, Brill series in Maritime History, (Leiden, 2017).
- Maritime History: The Greek Perspective co-edited with P. Kapetanakis, A. Papadopoulou, Brill series in Maritime History (under consideration)

Papers:

- “The Story of two Straits: British Shipping in the Baltic and the Mediterranean in the late 18th century”, in J W. Veluwenkamp –W. Scheltjens (eds.), Early Modern Shipping and Trade. Novel Approaches Using Sound Toll Registers Online, Brill (Leiden, 2018)
- «The Galata Bankers and the international banking of the Greek business group in the 19th century» S. Laiou, E.Eldem, V. Kechriotis (eds.) The economy of the Southern Black Sea Coast, 18th-20th centuries, (Corfu, 2017)
- «Η Ελληνική Κοινότητα του Λονδίνου τον 19^ο αιώνα. Μια κοινωνική και οικονομική προσέγγιση», Τα Ιστορικά 63 (Απρίλιος 2016)

- “Greek Merchant Bankers in the City of London; The first settlement (early 19th century)” Anglo-Greek Relations; Aspects of their recent histories, edited by the Hellenic Parliament Foundation and the British Embassy in Athens, (Athens, 2014)
- “Between Levant and Ponente; Livorno, an international emporium in the Mediterranean”, G. Harlaftis-K. Papakonstantinou (eds.), Greek Shipping in the Mediterranean, 1700-1821, Kedros (Athens, 2013) (in Greek)
- “Foreigners in an unfamiliar market; European business practices and culture in the Eastern Mediterranean in the 18th century”, in M. D’Angelo, G. Harlaftis and C. Vassalo (eds.), Making Waves in the Mediterranean, University of Messina (Messina, 2012)
- “Coastal Shipping and Liners”, K. Papakonstantinou (ed.), Voyages in the Mediterranean and the Oceans; Posters of Ships 19th-20th centuries, Melissa, (Athens, 2011)
- “The Napoleonic Wars and the Disruption of Mediterranean Trade; British and Greek Merchants in Livorno”, The Historical Review/La Revue Historique, vol. 7 (2010)

Book Review

- M. Fusaro, C. Heywood, M-S. Omri (eds.) Trade and Cultural Exchange in the early Modern Mediterranean, I.B Tauris; London 2010, in Journal for Maritime Research November 2015.